LMBR Is Here!!!

Last week Talbingo P.S went live with the new LMBR finance program. All has been running smoothly and we would like to Thank you all for your patience throughout the training process. There is still a lot to learn and a few more training days to attend, but the worst is over and we are enjoying the new updated system.

Khancoban Camp.

Last week students' were treated with a sleep over in Khancoban with the other ALPSS Schools. The theme for the event was "The Gold Unit" which students' have been learning about in Term 2.

Students' had a ball with all the fun activities organized with wheelchair basketball being a huge hit and everyone had a great time socializing at the disco.

All students' got to sleep on their new mattresses recently purchased by Talbingo P&C. Students all behaved beautifully and represented our School well.

Athletics Carnival.

The Results are in!!! Talbingo P.S were announced today as the Champions for the Athletics carnival!! Well done to all the Students' for giving 100% on the day, a great achievement for you all. A big thank you to Talbingo P&C who paid for all the bus expenses, which this year we were even able to offer to the parents'.

School Spectacular!!

The ALPSS choir has qualified to take part in 2017's School Spectacular held in Sydney this coming November. The choir consists of year 4 to 6 Students' and they are all very excited. Mrs Levey will be talking with parents in the weeks to come, to see what involvement they would like the younger Students' to have.

Tennis!!

Bernadette Cahill has been visiting TPS sharing and teaching the students' her wonderful knowledge in the world of tennis. We have seen a big improvement in the students' skills since attending. Whilst also getting some extra time with Cabramurra Public School.
